Report of Turkish Victory.
LONDON, October 26.—The Turkish army has gained a great victory, according to a news agency dispatch from Constantinople, which says the official announcement was issued there at 5:40 this evening. No details are given as to the time or place.

Take Many Guns at Kumanova.
BELGRADE, October 26.—It was officially announced tonight that the spoils captured at Kumanova included fifty-five field guns, six mountain guns and six Maxims, quantities of ammunition and stores and two aeroplanes. At Slenitz the Servians captured thirteen big guns and four Maxims.

Forty thousand Turks were engaged in the fighting in this district. They are accused of massacring many women and children before they left the town. The most prominent Slav inhabitants were imprisoned, but were rescued by the first Serbian army corps.

Closing Around Adrianople.
VIENNA, October 26.—The correspondent of the Reischepost, who is supposed to be an Austrian officer, sent the following message from the headquarters of the first Bulgarian army at 10 o'clock Friday evening:

Gen. Ivanoff is drawing his lines more closely around Adrianople, particularly to the west and north. He is strengthening his positions with earthworks. The Bulgarian heavy artillery is now bombarding the northwestern front of the fortress.

Immunization Agreement Questioned.
Mr. McIntyre mentioned "Bridger" Webster and Harry Vellor as the two witnesses he had in mind. He said that immunity agreements which the county prosecutor made with them were not approved by Judge Muirhead, who signed those made with Sam Schepps and "Dad Dugan."

Regarding a report that some of the four gunmen—"Gyp the Blood," "Lefty Louie," "Whitney" Lewis and "Dago Frank"—were prepared to turn state's evidence through terror at Becker's conviction, District Attorney Whitman, before leaving town for a rest tonight, said the four prisoners were given opportunity before Becker's trial to confess, and that none of them could hope to escape trial by telling what he knew, Mr.
Whitman said.

Opening Eyes of Europe.
LONDON, October 26.—The swiftness and efficiency of the onward movement of the allied Balkan states is making Europe open her eyes.
From the north and all along the line from Greece on the south they are making a steady and rapid advance.
The Ottoman empire in Europe. The often-predicted and long-delayed day when the Turk will win his back against the wall seems at hand.

The two pivotal points of Turkey's defense on the north were Adrianople and Kirk-Kilisheh. The Turkish army, which the east has defeated the Turks at Kirk-Kilisheh, which is the strongest outpost of Adrianople, and appears to have almost invested that fortress.

Pushing Attack on Scutari.
In the meantime the Montenegrins are pushing their attack on Scutari. The Greeks have entered a few small towns in the course of their advance to the north.

The fact that Turkey apparently was taken by surprise and that her most important outposts gave way, does not mean that the allies can push back the Turks. The second army, which has a long road for bravery, undoubtedly will mobilization is only under way. She claims to be able to mass 400,000 men outside of Constantinople, where as the allies have practically their full strength in abled men already in action.

Smith, who is only nineteen years old, has been making flights for several months in a machine of his own construction. Recently he flew over this city with his fiancée, much to the displeasure of his parents. The trip to Hillsdale was made with one stop.
The landing at Hillsdale was made on the college campus, before a large crowd.

News Note: "Dr. Taft wants to give medicine to the patient in his way, and Dr. Roosevelt wants to administer the dose in his way. In this situation I recommend to you Dr. Wilson as the physician who will help you. If you don't like him you can discharge him and always be sure of getting Dr. Roosevelt back. He has a night bell and both telephones."—Gov. Marshall at Portland, Ore.

Money Trust Investigation.

THOROUGH QUEST PLANNED Committee of the House Preparing to Resume Its Inquiry About November 15.

out enormous schemes of financial statistics, the House committee on banking and currency plans to plunge into an exhaustive investigation of the so-called money trust about November 15. Subpoenas already have been issued for the witnesses to be called early in the hearings, and are now in the hands of the sergeant-at-arm of the House action.

Compiled of Statistics.
Under the direction of Mr. Undermyer the experts are preparing an elaborate compendium of statistics embracing practically every financial and industrial institution in the country, and tracing the relation of each individual concern to other concerns. This compilation will be used as a basis for the examination of witnesses with a view to determining the exact influence exerted by New York banks and bankers on other banks and bankers throughout the country.

Representative Pujo of Louisiana, chairman of the committee, and Samuel Under-myer, New York, special committee, are expected to be questioned by the experts in their efforts to discover whether a small group of rich men has a controlling grip on the finances of the country.

"Chicago Joe" Buonomo, self-confessed slayer of Jennie Cavalliere, collapsed in his cell at police headquarters today and was removed to the county jail to be placed in the hospital ward there. He will be transferred to a local hospital tomorrow, where he will be examined as to his mental condition, as the physicians called to attend him this afternoon have expressed the opinion that his mind may have suffered in the breakdown.

EXPECT PAY FOR TIME TAKEN
Not Much Heard of Tammany.
Democrats Show Little Modesty
When It Comes to Making Claims.

BY N. O. MESSENGER.
NEW YORK, October 26.—The political prophecies are wrangling over New York's predicted presidential vote like a couple of terriers over a stuffed Teddy bear.
Not that it makes much difference in the outcome, since in the evolution—or shall we say revolution—of politics it is not likely to be this year a case of "as goes New York so goes the nation." The Nation already has given up on New York.

Thinly Veiled Threats.
"Hanna was highly indignant and sent a thinly veiled threat to President Taft that he would carry the state if he was Hanna's influence and that of his newspapers would be thrown against him. The President declined to be influenced by these threats.

Mr. Hanna and the other individuals who were dismissed the indictments against them, and the railroad companies pleaded guilty and pay fines aggregating over $25,000. The government, however, has an appreciation of the leniency of the government. Mr. Hanna has from the moment of his indictment, through the re-nomination and re-election of the President, expended in support of Roosevelt more money than the aggregate fines paid the government. That is an example of the type of men and motives of Col. Roosevelt's principal supporters."

General View of Situation.
But now let's abandon figures and look at the situation from a viewpoint by and large. The democracy carried the state two years ago, electing a governor, legislature, one United States senator, a whole parcel of representatives in the House and all that. To be sure, there were 200,000 stay-at-home republican votes. What is the difference now?
Isn't it the same old fight between the old guard republicans and the progressives? The difference of two years ago now there are three tickets in the field?
What are the odds whether the silent majority will vote for Wilson or or still stays at home? Are not the republicans torn in twain?

Doesn't it appear that it would take all the votes of the state to carry the state for the republicans? Where are you going to get 'em? Is it possible that the silent majority will vote for Wilson not actuated by the same motive which impelled them at that time to destroy the republic? The added count of Roosevelt are they not likely to go over to Wilson? Anyhow, if the republican vote is thus split, for the first time the vote is divided. Including the presence of the third party in the field, it makes a dangerous situation for the republicans.

Directed to House by Note.
The finding of the body was the result of a note received by mail by Chief of Police Young, which read: "If you will go to 297 Locust street you will find a body hanging."

"JANIE ASHLEY."
Beside the body was a pile of clothing, all of it much worn. On the floor near the body was a newspaper, dated September 25, which had a headline story of the arrest of men alleged to have been connected with the New Westminster bank robbery.

MORGAN ASSISTS COLLEGE.
HARTFORD, Conn., October 26.—The trustees of Trinity College today voted to raise a fund of $100,000 for the purchase of a new building, the endowment of the college, and to build a library and administration building, a new dormitory, and a new scientific building.

After the resolution had been adopted offered to pay the expense of building the library and administration building, to be known as "The William Hall," in memory of the late Dr. Rev. John Williams, Bishop of the Episcopal Church of Connecticut. Morgan's gift was received with enthusiasm and a building committee was appointed at once.

Attorneys for Insurance Company Being Sued Request Search.
ST. LOUIS, October 26.—Attorneys for the insurance company that is defendant in the Kimmel mystery insurance suit tonight announced that they had asked the police of Chicago and St. Louis, Mich., to look for the claimant who testified this week that he is the missing George A.
Kimmel.

The claimant disappeared Wednesday before his cross-examination was completed in the local circuit court. He is the chief witness of the insurance company, which has been sued by Kimmel's sister for insurance of Kimmel's life.

Some Democratic Claims.
But the democrats are up and doing with their claims, and they are not
